- (d) The subject of a proposal that has been withdrawn by its authors or rejected by the Assembly cannot be included in the draft resolution submitted on the emergency item, unless it is clearly referred to in the request and title of the subject adopted by the Assembly.

THE NEED TO FURTHER MOBILIZE INTERNATIONAL SUPPORT AND STRENGTHEN INTERNATIONAL EFFORTS TO ASSIST THE SOMALI PEOPLE SUFFERING FROM FAMINE

Explanatory memorandum submitted by the delegation of the Islamic Republic of Iran

Natural disasters that occur in different parts of the world every year have a negative impact on people's lives. It is a question that needs to be considered seriously by the international community. Among the different natural disasters, drought followed by famine and a food crisis (one of the largest humanitarian crises) results in the loss of life of thousands of people, as well as the displacement of millions of persons in the affected areas. Drought and famine in developing countries cause enormous damages due to the lack of adequate infrastructure, thus preventing developing countries from responding effectively and in time to the urgent needs of millions of affected people.

Unfortunately, millions of people have been trapped in the drought - famine crisis in Somalia. Thousands of children across Somalia and the Horn of Africa are suffering from a deadly combination of drought, rising food prices and armed conflict and hundreds more are dying every day. Children weakened by malnutrition are also susceptible to killer diseases such as measles, cholera and malaria, which may in turn extend beyond the affected area.

We cannot remain indifferent in the face of such a grim humanitarian situation in Somalia. The international community has a responsibility to urgently extend the necessary assistance to the people of Somalia, who are in dire need now. In this context, and in view of the fact that the IPU is a unique forum for parliamentarians to discuss global issues, we strongly believe that the concern of the affected country should be the concern of the IPU, which should be reflected at its Assemblies.

In this regard, the parliamentary delegation of the Islamic Republic of Iran would like to propose the above-mentioned emergency item for inclusion in the agenda of the 125th IPU Assembly.

THE NEED TO FURTHER MOBILIZE INTERNATIONAL SUPPORT AND STRENGTHEN
