Representation and voting rights

4. In conformity with Rule 2 of the Rules of the Standing Committees, the Members of the Union shall be represented on each Standing Committee by one titular member and one substitute.

5. The substitute shall have the same speaking rights as the titular member, but shall only vote in the latter's absence (cf. Rule 29.1).

Organisation of the debate

6. The Union's governing bodies have decided to make a determined effort to ensure an interactive debate in the Standing Committees. The reading of prepared speeches is therefore discouraged. There will be no pre-registration of speakers. Instead, the President of the Standing Committee will recognise speakers requesting the floor once the debate has begun.

7. A panel discussion on the subject of Access to health as a basic right: the role of parliaments in addressing key challenges to securing the health of women and children already took place at 125th IPU Assembly (Bern, October 2011) and dealt with general aspects of the subject. The summary records of that panel discussion are available at the IPU website at <http://www.ipu.org/conf-e/125/SR3.pdf>. At the 126th Assembly the Third Standing Committee will be called upon to pursue the debate in a more detailed fashion, identifying issues and proposing appropriate solutions.

Speaking time

8. The Union's governing bodies have also decided that delegates may take the floor several times but that no statement should exceed a maximum of four minutes. According to the provisions of Standing Committee Rule 24, the President may review this question and take the necessary measures to ensure the smooth running of the debates, particularly since he or she may have to restrict the speaking time in view of the number of speakers and length of the session.

Documents

9. The preparation of the report and the preliminary draft resolution on the subject item placed on the Standing Committee's agenda is the responsibility of the co-Rapporteurs appointed by the 124th Assembly.

10. Arrangements and deadlines for the preparation and finalisation of the report and the draft resolution are contained in section 9 of the Convocation of the 126th Assembly (document A/126/C.1). Please note that, in accordance with Rule 17.1 of the Rules of the Assembly and Rule 12.2 of the Rules of the Standing Committees, amendments to the draft resolution must be deposited with the Secretariat of the Assembly no later than 15 days before the opening of the Assembly, i.e. Friday, 16 March 2012. Sub-amendments may be submitted up until the Standing Committee adopts the draft resolution intended for the Assembly (Assembly Rule 17.2).

Election of the Bureau

11. It is to be recalled that each Standing Committee has a Bureau composed of a President and five Vice-Presidents - one from each of the six geopolitical groups. For each titular member of the Bureau there is also a substitute member representing the same geopolitical group.

12. The role of the Bureau is vitally important for the normal functioning of the Standing Committee. The Bureau meets at every Assembly and fulfils a number of statutory tasks, including the consideration of proposals submitted by the Members of the Union for the subject items and of candidatures for the co-Rapporteurs for future Assemblies. It is therefore imperative that members of the Bureau be knowledgeable about specific issues falling within the field of competence of the respective Standing Committee and that every effort be made to ensure that members of the Bureau participate in all statutory Assemblies during their terms of office so that each geopolitical group is represented at every session of the Bureau, through either its titular or substitute member.

13. In conformity with Rule 7.2 of the Rules of the Standing Committees, officers of the Committee shall be elected or re-elected at the first annual session of the Assembly by an absolute majority of the votes cast.

14. Apart from one vacancy (see below), all present members of the Bureau of the Third Standing Committee (both titular and substitute) are eligible for re-election (cf. Rule 8.1).

15. The statutory election of Committee officers will take place at the last sitting of the Committee on Wednesday, 4 April.

Proposals for the subject item and the co-Rapporteurs for the 128th Assembly

16. The Members of the Union are invited to submit to the IPU Secretariat their proposals for the subject item to be discussed by the Third Standing Committee at the 128th Assembly.

17. As far as possible, each proposal should be accompanied by the names of two prospective co-Rapporteurs who should be knowledgeable about the proposed subject and ready to assume the responsibility for drafting the corresponding report and draft resolution. When nominating the candidatures of co-Rapporteurs, it is important to keep in mind that, in order to facilitate the work of the IPU Secretariat and ensure timely distribution of the drafts to the Members of the Union, all texts should be transmitted to the Secretariat by the co-Rapporteurs in either English or French, the two official written languages of the IPU.

18. From the start of the Assembly, the Bureau of the Third Standing Committee will be expected to carry out consultations with the geopolitical groups and the Bureaux of the other Standing Committees concerning the choice of subject items for the 128th Assembly. At its meeting on Tuesday, 3 April, the Bureau of the Third Standing Committee will consider relevant proposals taking into account the opinions of the geopolitical groups. The Bureau will submit a proposal for approval to the full Committee at its final sitting in the morning of Wednesday, 4 April from 9.00 to 11.00 a.m. The Committee's proposal for the subject item and the candidatures of co-Rapporteurs for the 128th Assembly will then be submitted for approval by the 126th Assembly at its last sitting in the afternoon of Thursday, 5 April.
