

Making laws work to end violence against women and girls Bucharest (Romania), 12-14 June 2017

Regional Conference for Central and Eastern Europe jointly organized by the Inter-Parliamentary Union (IPU), the Romanian Chamber of Deputies, Global Rights for Women and Vital Voices

GENERAL INFORMATION

1. VENUE, DATE AND PROGRAMME

The Conference will be held from 12 to 14 June 2017 in the Parliament of Romania (Palace of Parliament), Avram Iancu Hall, Level P1. Access to the Conference venue is from the official entrance located on Constitution Square (entrance C1), where all badges and Conference documents should be collected.

2. PARTICIPATION

The Conference will bring together for the first time delegations consisting of parliamentarians, non-governmental advocates, and legal government officials (i.e. law enforcement, prosecutor, judge, and policymaker) who are responsible for creating, adopting or implementing laws on domestic violence or sexual violence. Participants will come from the following Central and Eastern European countries: Albania, Armenia, Azerbaijan, Belarus, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Bulgaria, Croatia, Czech Republic, Estonia, Georgia, Hungary, Latvia, Lithuania, Montenegro, Poland, Republic of Moldova, Romania, Russian Federation, Serbia, Slovakia, Slovenia, the Former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia, Turkey and Ukraine.

Each parliament is invited to send three participants maximum from both sexes and reflecting the political representation within parliament. It is recommended that designated parliamentarians be persons working directly on gender equality and violence against women issues in parliament. Each Parliament is also invited to include in its delegation a legal government official who has played a role in implementing laws on ending violence against women.

Non-governmental organizations that are part of Global Rights for Women and Vital Voices' network are also invited to send a maximum of four participants, consisting of NGO staff and legal government officials that have worked together in the past to improve the response to violence against women in their country. The list of NGOs invited to attend as part of the GRW and Vital Voices networks is found in Annex 1.

3. CONFERENCE GOAL

The goal of the conference is to empower national actors - parliaments, governments, and civil society organizations - to work together to adopt and effectively implement violence against women laws, prioritizing victim safety and offender accountability. The conference goal builds on the acknowledgement that multi-sectoral cooperation is a prerequisite to ensure that women are protected and offenders are held accountable.

4. CONFERENCE HIGHLIGHTS

- Keynote speeches by renown international experts and interactive panel discussions of international and regional standards and best practices on ending violence against women and girls
- Segments in plenary to exchange knowledge and promote the sharing of innovation
- Break-out sessions and learning tracks
- Meetings in-country delegations to develop a common national working plan to ensure women's easy access to support services, protection, justice and recovery

5. DOCUMENTS

Participants will receive copies of the resource persons' presentations as they become available. To the extent possible, the conference Secretariat will make available background documentation on the topics under discussion for the information of participants. The Secretariat will strive to make these documents available in English and, where possible, also in Russian and Romanian.

Participants wishing to distribute relevant documentation to their colleagues will be required to provide it in sufficient quantities and place it on a table set aside for that purpose in front of the Avram Iancu Hall.

6. WORKING LANGUAGES

Simultaneous interpretation will be provided into and from English, Russian and Romanian.

Please note that only one additional interpretation booth is available for delegations that wish to speak in any other language. Delegations that wish to use interpretation facilities are kindly requested to inform the organisers no later than 15 May 2017. They should provide their own interpreter; the additional booth will be reserved on a first-come-first served basis.
