

PARLIAMENTARY MEETING ON THE OCCASION OF THE 2010 REVIEW CONFERENCE OF THE PARTIES TO THE TREATY
ON THE NON-PROLIFERATION OF NUCLEAR WEAPONS (NPT)

777 United Nations Plaza, New York, 5 May 2010

ANNOTATED AGENDA

Wednesday, 5 May 2010

3:00 - 3:15 p.m. Opening remarks

3:15 – 3:30 p.m. Keynote address

One of the main threats to international security remains the spread of nuclear weapons. What is the current state of affairs in the nuclear non-proliferation and disarmament regime since the last Review of the NPT Treaty in 2005?

Mr. Sergio de Queiroz Duarte, Under Secretary General and High Representative for Disarmament, United Nations

3:30 – 4:30 p.m. Parliamentary efforts to advance nuclear disarmament and non-proliferation

- Follow-up to the commitments expressed in the 2009 IPU resolution on “Advancing nuclear non-proliferation and disarmament, and securing the entry into force of the Comprehensive Nuclear-Test-Ban Treaty: The Role of parliaments”
- Garnering support for Nuclear-Weapons-Free Zones
- Overview of parliamentary resources to develop policies and strategies that prevent nuclear proliferation and promote fuller involvement in the disarmament process

4:45 – 5:45 p.m. Building political momentum towards a Nuclear Weapons Convention

The United Nations Secretary-General Ban Ki-moon has proposed negotiations for a Nuclear Weapons Convention or a package of agreements to abolish nuclear weapons. What would it take to achieve this and what possibilities are there for progress at the 2010 NPT Review Conference?

5:45 – 6:00 p.m. Closing remarks

6:00 – 8:00 p.m. Reception hosted by the Middle Powers Initiative in honour of the President of the NPT Review Conference. Ballroom, 1st Floor, Beekman Tower Hotel, 3 Mitchell Place, Corner 1st Ave and East 50th St.
