15:15- 16:30 THE CRITICAL ROLE OF PARLIAMENT IN AID AND DEVELOPMENT EFFECTIVENESS

Discussant I: Hon. Pat Breen (Ireland)

Discussant II: Hon. Mkhululi Dlamini (SADC-Parliamentary Forum, Swaziland)

Discussant III: Hon. Cho Yoon Sun (Republic of Korea)

The session will discuss the critical role parliaments play in assuring effective development in the countries and regions concerned with an eye towards the need for deepened cooperation with other stakeholders. Legislative principles for development effectiveness¹ will be discussed and debated, providing participants with an overview of the breadth of interventions available to legislators. The objective will be to enhance the understanding of the untapped potential that exists in parliaments and shed light on the tools needed to enhance their work in the post-Busan aid reform context.

16:30-16:45 COFFEE/TEA BREAK

16:45-18:00 ASSESSING PROGRESS AND SETBACKS, HLF-4 OUTCOMES AND WAY FORWARD

Discussant I: Hon. Odette Nyiramilimo (East African Legislative Assembly, Rwanda) (TBC)

Discussant II: Hon. Franziska Keller (European Parliament, Germany)

Discussant III: Hon. Kan Dapaah (Ghana)

This session will focus on a review of the HLF-4 outcome document from the parliamentary perspective. It will also address the engagement of parliamentary stakeholders in the current aid reform process and ways this can be further optimized in the future. The main aim of this session will be to formulate a clear parliamentary message to be delivered to participants of the HFL-4.

19:00 DINNER HOSTED BY THE MAYOR OF BUSAN
