Dear Madam President,
Dear Mr. President

I am writing to invite your Parliament to attend the Tenth Information Seminar on Parliaments and the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women (CEDAW). The seminar is organized by the Inter-Parliamentary Union (IPU) and the Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights (OHCHR) and will be held at the CIGC on Thursday, 10 October 2013, immediately following the 129th IPU Assembly.

The CEDAW is the most comprehensive international legal instrument addressing women's rights and provides a framework for promoting gender equality. The implementation of the CEDAW is monitored by a United Nations treaty body, the Committee on the Elimination of Discrimination against Women, which examines reports from States parties and issues concluding observations and recommendations for follow-up action.

The theme of this year's seminar, which aims to strengthen parliament's role in the reporting process of the CEDAW, is Nationality and Economic Rights. Several experts, including members of the Committee and a member of parliament with experience on questions related to access to nationality and economic rights, will facilitate the seminar.

Your parliament is invited to send two members, preferably a man and a woman who have expertise in the field of women's rights and the status of women and/or who are members of a parliamentary committee dealing with this topic. Please note that the invitation is also extended to one or two parliamentary staff dealing with these issues.

We will be sending the agenda of the event and other pertinent documents as soon as they are finalized. These documents will also soon be available at www.ipu.org/strct-e/futrmets.htm. Meanwhile, we are pleased to attach the registration form.

We would appreciate confirmation of your parliament's participation in this event by 1 October at the latest.

Yours sincerely,

Anders B. Johansson
Secretary General
