

The Role of Parliaments in Financing for Gender Equality

New York, 27 February 2008

A parliamentary event organized by the Inter-Parliamentary Union and the United Nations Division for the Advancement of Women on the occasion of the 52nd Session of the Commission on the Status of Women

Room 4 – UN Headquarters, New York

INFORMATION NOTE

During the 52nd Session of the United Nations Commission on the Status of Women (CSW), which will consider as its priority theme Financing for gender equality and the empowerment of women, the Inter-Parliamentary Union (IPU) and the United Nations Division for the Advancement of Women (UNDAW) are organising a parliamentary event entitled: The role of parliament in financing for gender equality.

The meeting will take place on Wednesday 27 February, from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.
in Room 4 at UN Headquarters in New York.

Objectives

In keeping with its policy of contributing to major international forums by seeking to introduce a parliamentary dimension into the proceedings of intergovernmental organisations, the IPU is organising this one-day event with UNDAW in order to provide a forum for debate between parliamentarians from all over the world, and to contribute to the deliberations of the 52nd CSW.

In cooperation with partner organisations, the event will aim to highlight the specific contribution of parliaments and the difference they can make in securing adequate financial support to women's empowerment and the implementation of policies and programmes in favour of gender equality. Parliamentarians will therefore be invited to address this objective from two angles: (1) parliament's role in maximising national wealth in favour of women and gender equality and (2) financing gender equality in politics.

Expected outcome

At the close of the meeting, a brief message to the CSW will be issued, stressing areas for future priority action, with particular emphasis on how parliaments can and should contribute to financing gender equality and women's empowerment.

Relevant documents

Background documents to be used throughout the meeting include:

- Written contributions of the panellists;
- Documents of the 52nd Session of the CSW;
- Report on the UN Expert Group Meeting on Financing for gender equality and the empowerment of women (Oslo, September 2007)
- The UN Secretary General's Report on iFinancing for Gender Equality and the Empowerment of Women

Participants

The participants in the Parliamentary Event will include:

- Parliamentarians present in New York for the 52nd Session of the CSW as members of their respective national delegations. A letter of invitation will be sent by the IPU Secretary General to all Member and non-member parliaments of the IPU. Efforts will be made to encourage the participation of chairpersons and members of gender equality parliamentary committees.

- Representatives of governments, relevant organisations and funds of the UN system, and civil society will also be invited.

Access badges for United Nations Headquarters

As is customary during General Assembly sessions, security arrangements are very strict and no one may enter the United Nations premises without a special badge (for delegates and visitors). In keeping with normal practice, national delegations and diplomatic missions in New York will be invited to attend to all matters relating to visas, UN Badges, hotel reservations and transportation. Participants must therefore request their badge from their country's permanent mission to the United Nations.
