

TENTH WORKSHOP OF PARLIAMENTARY SCHOLARS AND PARLIAMENTARIANS

Wroxton College
28-29 July 2012

PAPERS

PLENARY

*Responsiveness and Renewal:
The changing nature of parliamentary representation*
Greg Power

Far away and so close: Parliaments and citizens in France
Tinette Schnatterer, University of Bordeaux

A least likely case: Parliament and citizens in the Netherlands
Rudy Andeweg, University of Leiden

The Finnish Eduskunta: still the Nordic 'Vatican'?
David Arter, University of Tampere

Parliaments and Citizens in Sub-Saharan Africa
Elisabete Azevedo, University of Lisbon

Parliaments and citizens in Latin America
Jason Ross Arnold, Virginia Commonwealth University

MP skills for development, accountability and transparency
Ken Coghill, Colleen Lewis, Peter Holland, and Katrin Steinack, Monash University

Do we ask too much of our Members of Parliament in the 21st Century?
Colleen Lewis, Monash University

Redefining parliamentary accountability in Europe
Aron Buzogany, German Public Administration Research Institute, and Sabine Kropp,
German Public Administration University

Parliamentary oversight of national budgets: recent trends in EU member states
Elena Griglio, parliamentary counsellor, Italian Senate

National Parliaments after Lisbon: a process of institutional isomorphism? A comparative approach and the case of Portugal
Maria Teresa Paulo, Legislative and Parliamentary Information Division, Portuguese Parliament

Parliamentary scrutiny of EU affairs: a cross-national comparison with QCA
Astrid Spreitzer and Anne-Sylvie Pigeonnier, University of Luxembourg

Transparency vs. informality in legislative committees: comparing the US Congress, the Italian and European Parliaments
Nicola Lupo and Cristina Fasone, Luiss Guido Carli University

Politics, principles and compromise: public perceptions and evaluations of compromise in parliamentary processes
Christopher Carman, University of Strathclyde

Theoretical foundations of legislative oversight

Rick Stapenhurst, McGill University, Riccardo Pelizzo, World Bank, and Kerry Jacobs, Australian National University

Parliamentary roles and careers in cross-national perspectives: differences between emerging and developed democracies

Katrin Steinack, Monash University

Legislative thinking: understanding, evidence and decision-making in US State Houses

Christopher Z. Mooney, University of Illinois at Springfield

Legislature-executive relations at the sub-national level in Nigeria

Emmanuel Remi Aiyede and Ibraheem Oladipo Muheeb, University of Ibadan

Executive-legislative relations in the executive-led Government in Hong Kong: Does the legislature have the upper-hand?

Anton Cooray, City University of Hong Kong

Parliamentary oversight, improvements in governance and the attribution of credit: parliamentary oversight produced measurably better Government in Bosnia-Herzegovina

Robert Nakamura and Samir Musovic, Center for International Development, State University of New York

Legislative oversight and corruption

Rick Stapenhurst, McGill University, Riccardo Pelizzo, World Bank, and Kerry Jacobs, Australian National University

100 years of democratic reforms in Tonga: A tale of no real change

Abel Kinyondo, Monash University

Fifty years of bicameralism in Trinidad and Tobago 1961-2011: an analysis of the challenges, controversies and reform

Hamid Ghany, University of the West Indies

Discourse on Scottish independence – politicians versus publics

Mark Shephard, University of Strathclyde

Legislative constitutional interpretation in the United Kingdom

Jack Simson Caird, Queen Mary College, University of London

Uniformity and diversity in parliamentary representation

Byron Criddle, University of Aberdeen

Rising to the top – career trajectories of the 1997 general election cohort

Peter Allen, Birkbeck College, University of London

A Year in the life: learning from the first year experience of new Members of Parliament

Ruth Fox and Matt Korris, The Hansard Society

The Westminster Parliament: performing politics

Emma Crewe, School of Oriental and African Studies, University of London

Engaging with the enemy: the parliamentary participation of party leaders 1945-2010

Michael Rush, University of Exeter

Cleaning out the stables: The recruitment of Government Whips in the House of Commons and House of Lords 1974-2010

J. David Morgan, Open University

Are regulators accountable?

John McEldowney, University of Warwick, and Gerard Marcou, University of Paris Sorbonne

Parliamentary oversight: a strategic interaction model

Riccardo Pelizzo, World Bank

Parliamentary Budget Offices

Rick Stapenhurst, McGill University, Riccardo Pelizzo, World Bank, and Mitchell O'Brien, World Bank

New (Non-Commonwealth) PACs

Alexander Hamilton, World Bank Institute, and Rick Stapenhurst, McGill University

Please note that the list of papers is provisional and may be subject to change.