The main changes following the reorganization of IPU's regional groupings for the calculation of regional averages of women in national parliaments from 1 January 2019 onwards are as follows:

The "Europe" regional grouping replaces the former "Europe-OSCE" regional grouping. It excludes the following countries, that are now part of the "Asia" regional grouping: Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Tajikistan, Turkmenistan and Uzbekistan.

The "Middle East and North Africa" regional grouping replaces the former "Arab Countries" regional grouping. It includes Israel and Mauritania, and excludes Brunei Darussalam and Djibouti.
